Legion to Give Four Citations

Four members of the Albany Legion will receive membership achievement awards tonight for their outstanding work during the current membership drive.

The citations will be awarded by Commander Arthur Carlson at the regular meeting set for 8 o'clock at the Veterans Memorial Building. Jack Purcell, Walker Lyon and Hamilton will receive the Coliseum Department Commander's White and Blue Award. The annual Commander's award will be given to Cary Canaday, the member to receive the top award.

With the present membership totaling 292, Chairman Don Karns expects to have 313 on the roll by June 1.

John P. Robins, chairman of the legion's Boys' State Committee, invited Gordon W. Muir to attend tonight's meeting. Muir was elected as the Albany representative to attend the Boys' State in Sacramento next month.

Mrs. Dorothy Bradlee and Mrs. J. Holland on behalf of the Sewing Club of the Legion Auxiliary presented white nylon neck pieces to each of the four recipients. The guard, directed by Mrs. Muir, will make their next appearance at the 10th District meeting in Oakland on May 16.

James A. Sartain and Coach Fred Peters are now selecting boys to play on the Post's Junior Legion team for the 1951 season.

Albany Seniors to Give 'Mother's Day' Freshman

Albany High School seniors will present a hilarious comedy, "Mother's Day," on Friday, May 11, at the school auditorium. The spring production is the direction of Richard Hillman, drama instructor.

An impetuous mother, a disreputable daughter and a levy of college at "Pointer College" make college life exceedingly gay for the play department, not to mention the dean of the institution.

Les Boam, president of the Albany High student body, depicts an attractive mother and easily attracts top honors for her dramatic ability. Dick Johnson, prominent Albany athlete, brings high comedy to the role of the seven-year-old, Bobo, "who never drops a word—or a woman."

Jack Daleth, a zoology professor, goes deeper in the toils of amour in learning, and Ed Stoermer, the flabbergasted Dean Gillingham, carry out their roles with excellence and finish.

The supporting cast includes Bill Coyle, Tom Binniger, Mitch Coyle, Carral Larson, Aileen Coyle, Marilee Roekhoff, Joyce Farnsworth, Judy Willis, Barbara Caldwell, Marion Younge and Edna Chandler.

Stage setting arrangements are being handled by Frank Turner, and music will be provided by the school orchestra under the baton of William Olson.

Friendly Circle Plans Luncheon

Mrs. Alice Bourne will be guest speaker at the 12:30 p.m. luncheon Tuesday of the Friendly Circle of Valley Park Chapel, Colusa and View. Program will also include musical numbers. Members celebrating birthdays in May will be honored. Hostesses are Mrs. Helen Cushman, Mrs. Pearl Coe and Mrs. Lula Olson.

Planned chiefly to give children the opportunity to display their talents, the show promises to give the public a star-studded evening of entertainment.

Admission is 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

City Asks For More Race Track Revenue

$100 Per Day Tax Proposed

More tax revenue from the Albany race track today was an order of the City Council.

The Council Monday night instructed the City Attorney to draft an ordinance calling for a $100 per day tax from the track for each racing day in addition to the present five-cent admission tax on each ticket.

Action came after a debate led by Councilman John C. Longaker, who said "it's time the city was getting some return for the millions of dollars the race track drains out of these communities each year."

The measure was approved 3-1, with Councilman Frank Graeber voting against it, and Councilwoman Mrs. Kathie Zahn not voting. Graeber termed the additional tax measure as "killing the goose that lays the golden eggs."

"The city might lose its $25,000 to $30,000 revenue from the five-cent head tax if we press the race track for additional taxes," said Graeber.

Graeber said the proposed $100 per day tax would only bring in around $4500 during the usual 45-day racing season. He pointed out that the city previously levied the $100 a day tax, but dropped it when the admission tax was imposed.

"I think their argument (the race track) is pure bluff," Longaker answered. "I say let's put the cards on the table and call them on it. It's high time we decided whose running the city—the race track or city officials."

Longaker was backed in his proposal by Mayor Jerome Blank and Councilman Raymond Cleary. Mrs. Zahn said that she favored taxing the race track to the limit, but she could not approve the new tax until the legal aspects had been checked.

In other business, the City Attorney and City Engineer were instructed to prepare a report on the proposed sewage disposal plant to be constructed on Point Isabel. The Council asked for an opinion on whether it would be disadvantageous to the city.

A recommendation of Councilman Longaker to hire a full-time police juvenile officer was shelved until the new budget is drawn up.

Police Chief Stanley C. Williams said in a letter to the Council that it would cost around $8000 to put the juvenile program into operation the first year. He said if one of the present officers were given the duties, it would be necessary to hire another officer and to buy an extra car. The juvenile officer would also supervise the Junior Traffic Patrol.

Longaker pointed out that Albany had a growing percentage of juvenile delinquent cases, like other neighboring cities.

"I think it is a challenge to any city to curb delinquents before they become adults," he said. "I think we should name an officer and that he should be sent to the Juvenile School at UCLA for training. Albany should catch up with the times."

A letter from Gerald Browne, commander of Civilian Defense, said that Federal aid may be available in the future to construct the basement portion of the new proposed library. He said it could be classified as a bomb shelter.

Mayor Blank added that the basement—or bomb shelter—might also

In an oral report to the Council, City Attorney Edward R. Plotner asked that an investigation be made of Mrs. Zahn's actions. He charged her of allegedly "embarking on a program calculated to undermine the faith of the citizens in their chosen leaders" and that she had allegedly made verbal attacks against various city officers.

In turn, Mrs. Zahn answered: "The City Attorney is the one that should be investigated."
"Everybody seems to be investigating everybody else," said Mayor Blank. "Instead of pulling apart, why don't we try to work together... At least we could give it a try."

Of New Developments

It is very gratifying to receive compliments on our professional ability, but we feel that much of the credit should go to the scientists who have done so much in the last few years to improve embalming equipment and techniques. We will continue, as we have in the past, to put into practice all that's new and better in our profession.
